WILLIAM H. SOUTHWORTH, Manager

This is Billy's fifth season as pilot of the Tribesmen. Born at Harvard, Nebraska on March 9, 1893, he was with the Braves as an outfielder from 1921 through 1923. Married and the father of a 14 year old daughter, Carole, Billy makes his home in Sunbury, Ohio. In four previous years with the Braves, Southworth finished 4th in 1946, 3rd in 1947, 1st in 1948 and 4th in 1949.

JOHN W. COONEY, Coach

This is Johnny's fifth year in a coaching capacity with the Braves. One of the most popular men in the game, he started his career with the Tribesmen back in 1920. He is married, has one son, John, and lives in Sarasota, Florida.

JAMES R. BROWN, Coach

Highly regarded throughout the game, Jimmy is back for his second season as a Tribal coach. He played for Billy Southworth on the St. Louis Cardinals and later performed in the spangles of the Pirates. Jimmy is married, makes his winter residence at Washington, N.C. with his wife and child.

WILLIAM H. WALTERS, Coach

The addition of Bucky Walters to the Braves coaching staff brings back to Boston one of the outstanding pitchers of modern day baseball. Though he gained his greatest glory on the mound, Bucky broke into the majors with the Braves back in 1931 as a third baseman. During his big league career he also saw service with the Red Sox, Phillies and Reds. Bucky is married, lives in Philadelphia.

ROBERT W. KEELY, Coach

Bob has been in baseball since 1937 and most of these years have been spent on teams which have been managed by his present boss, Billy Southworth. A native of St. Louis, and one of the most popular men on the Braves roster, Bob is a combination coach and bull pen catcher.
